

Professional Biography

Larry Waller, CLU, ChFC, CFP® – Founder and CEO

During his distinguished career, Larry has built a highly successful company and received many honors. He is quick to share credit for both company success and honors achieved.

Always looking forward, Larry is most pleased about Waller Financial Planning Group's ability to work with clients and affect community improvement. "Philanthropy is a mechanism to leave a positive and lasting legacy for families and communities. With careful planning, philanthropy's impact can be felt now as well as by those who will come after us. It is wonderful to work with clients and associates who share my fervent belief in the value of paying forward."

Larry is a member of numerous professional, philanthropic, civic and church organizations. Among the many honors and awards he has received is the 2005 Leave A Legacy Award presented by the Association of Fundraising Professionals given to individuals who help support the efforts of philanthropic organizations in unique and meaningful ways.

Larry has a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration degree from The Ohio State University.
